DEDICATION 1999

James Burbank

Our class, the class of 1999, has been inspired by many teachers and staff throughout our four years of high school. We have been motivated by these incredible people to achieve our goals. Each of these people have allowed us to be ourselves and have congratulated us on our originality. But most of all, they have simply made us smile . The class of 1999 has found good in almost everyone who has crossed our path. The senior class, an amazing group of students, has been so positively affected by the Attleboro High School staff, they have found it impossible to choose only one person who stands out from the rest . Our mentors come in all shapes and sizes, and from all walks of life. We, the class of 1999, admire all of them, and throughout the rest of our lives, will try to be a little of each of them. These men amd women will forever be in our hearts. They are our teachers, our guidance, and our life long advisors. Therefore, the senior classs of 1999, would like to dedicate this yearbook to Jim Burbank, Wendy DaSilva, Judy Hebert, and David Sutherland. Thank you to these four amazing people. We, as a class, appreciate all you have done for us and

CLASS ADVISORS

Judy Hebert

The class of 1999 was blessed with the good fortune of maturing with two of the grooviest advisors, as well as people: Mrs. Wendy DaSilva and Mrs. Judy Hebert. They have had a tremedous impact on the Class of 1999 since freshman year. Their relentless work, effort, and dedication has helped our class become the most successful and most spirited group of students to ever grace the halls of Attleboro High School. We are forever grateful for your guidance through these years and will never forget all you have taught us. Thank you once again for giving the Class of 1999 all you possibly could.

For Every time there is a season, and a time for every matter under heaven: a time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up what is planted.

- Ecclesiastes 3:1-2

Senior Class History

We entered Attleboro High School as one of the largest classes to ever walk the hallways and eat in the cafeterias, four long years ago. Within those four years a state championship has been won, musicals have been sung, tears have been cried, friendships have been formed and torn apart and, above everything, memories have been made.

In the fall of our freshman year, our power and spirit as a class was tested at the spirit rally. After defeating the sophomores, then the juniors in the tug - o - war our next battle was against the seniors. With spirit and blue "99" painted faces, we defeated the seniors, much to their surprise. In October the whole school ran to the nearest TV so we could all watch the historic OJ Simpson verdict. The winter brought our first semi - formals and mid years. After surviving mid years, which we never thought would happen, we enjoyed the rest of the season. The music department performed "The Wizard of Oz"and all were transported to "the yellow brick road". In May we had our Social, with the entire 'pit' turned into a starry night. Thanks to the courtyard we had some relief from the crowded dance floor. With the theme song of the social being "I'll stand by you" our entire year of new friendships and new experiences came to an end.

We soon became sophomores, with the past year behind us we now were left aware but still not totally sure of our place in the high school. The fall was kicked off with a winning season as the football team went to the superbowl, even with a defeat against Marshfield the season was still a success. At the rally our '99 spirit was in full swing again as we donned our new class shirts. Even though we came in second we now had some clue as to what to do at a spirit rally. This year the music department had the whole school singing "We love you Conrad" with their production of "Bye Bye Birdie". In February, everyone was asking "Who's Bob?" as the class '99 council pulled off itís first successful fund-raiser with the motivational speaker, Bob White. Soon following was the record breaking snowstorm that covered th entire Northeast in April and kept us out of school for two days but this is just one of the things to happen in April. In that same month our Sophomore Gathering was held at the Elks. We danced the night away amist dozens of balloons an declared that "You were meant for me". Soon the fun was over and finals began ending our sophomore year.

UPPERCLASSMEN - a place we never pictured ourselves making it to. Junior year was upon us and what a year it was. As a class we won our first spirit rally and participated in our first powderpuff football game. After hours of long practice and hard work the big game came and with it came the rain. After tying the score with the seniors, the game was postponed unfortunately. We were defeated at ne postponed game due to scheduling. Soon after, the student ouncil hosted it first ever SEMASC conference, which was a uge success. With the winter came a historic event, for the rst time in 55 years the boy's basketball team won the ivision 1 state championship, much to the cities delight. eland Anderson and Derek Swenson had their names written nto AHS basketball history with their historical 1000 points cored. The girls basketball team also had an amazing season ith their run all the way to the semi-finals. To cap off the inning winter season the varsity cheerleaders traveled to rlando, Florida to compete in the Cheerleading National hampionships. They came in at an impressive 13th in the ation! In the spring the music department performed "West ide Story", which included many students who had never efore performed in a musical. With May came our first rom, held at Rhodes on the Pawtuxet. Jessica Emond and had Paquette were crowned prom king and queen and the vening came to an end but our hearts will go on. Thus the ountdown began to our senior year.

We have finally reached the top - Senior Year. Valking into the crowded school, we now have become the nallest class instead of the largest. In the fall the football am returned to the superbowl with a loss to North Attleboro espite a remarkable season. The first ever "Mr. AHS" contest as held in November and the boyís showed all the right oves to "I'm too Sexy" before a sold out audience. In the inter our last semi - formals were held and we began to study r our last mid years. Winter came with another historical vent, Sarah Wright scored her 1000 points and wrote her ame into girls basketball history. Hung out before school ach day we in the parking lot, or in B2 until a second before ass. During school we sat at lunch until we were forced to ave, trying to hold on to ever last minute of high school. Vith the spring will come our senior prom, breakfast, cruise nd the all important GRADUATION.

Our seats at lunch and our lockers will be taken over y others and our spots on the wall in B2 will be replaced. he lead roles in the school musicals will have new faces and e trombones will be played by others in the band. The inning touchdowns will still be scored and the parking paces will be filled in. What will never change is the emories of AHS's last class of the twentieth century. ood luck to all!

Foreign Exchange Students

Hi, my name is Michael Benkel and I was one of the German exchange students. This year was probably the most interesting and exciting in my life. I got to know so much about this country including families, society and of course the school. It was a wonderful experience and I'd like to thank you all !! :)

Hi, my name is Marion Bigot de la Touanne (for people who don't know me), and I'm French. I would like to thank the people who helped me during the year; people who made it an easier experience for me.The school is so different over here and I appreciate it more and more, because many activities are available in different domains. I'm glad to come to Attleboro High for this year; the ambiance was awesome sometimes. ok, i wish you success and happiness in the future. See you!! Oh, before I forgot, Thanks for attention.
I'll miss u all !!!!

Tomoko Hiramatsu (Japan), I had a great time in AHS. It has been wonderful experience for me. Thanks to everyone who helped when I needed it. Especially I have to thank all the music department members.

ChikaYasue
Thank you my friends who are always helped me, nice to me, and taught me a English. I will never forget about student life in America.

My name is Andre Moura, I'm from Brazil. My experience in Attleboro High School has been very difficult but also very good. It was difficult because the language was new for me and it very hard. It was also very good because, here I got to know a lot of nice people, these people have made it fantastic year.To my soccer coach Mr. Pereira, my teacher Mr. Stephenson, Mr. Billingkoff, Ms Gage, and Ms. Camire and especially all my friends, I want to say thanks for understanding and helping me.

G'day everybody,
It was really hard to leave you guys half way through the year and go back to Australia because I had the best time of my life in Attleboro. American school is fantastic, I did so much stuff I never thought would be possible! Drama, band etc! There is not enough room on paper to say thanks to all the friends I have there ypu know who you are! I miss you guys! And no, I've never ridden on a Kangaroo!!!!!! Hoo roo
Love Ya!!
Marion Schoosmith

1999

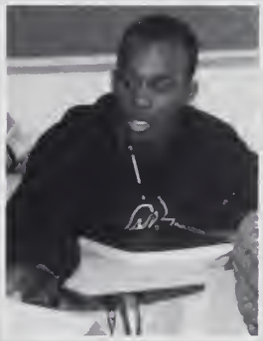
Our Dear Tara, When we sit & write this small tribute to such an important milestone in your life, it gives us cause to pause and reflect upon your growth, development and character.

Mom & I always begin thinking about you by reflecting to your first act of bravery in the North End Pool. If not for your determination and courage, Tiffany would have been a toyless little girl. This individual act was but one example of the manner in which you carried forward with all the other tests that crossed your path. In fact, but for your refusal to help whomever might be choking at the the dinner table,I think you are truly fearless.

Tara, you are the joy of our lives. You are a true leader as exemplified by your independence and accomplishments. You are also a mush a love. Your emotional side is your driving force and the depth of your commitment to our family is incomparable. Tara, a daughter like you is the pride of a parents existence. With complete & endless love from Mom, Dad, Tiffany, Sam, Paulo & Rosario. Congratulations, We love you.



As editors of the 1999 Tattletale, we faced a daunting challange. Only two of us had ever worked on the yearbook before, and on top of that, we were learning a new computer program. Needless to say, it has been a long year. We got off to a slow start and it didn't speed up until we had a month to finish. Well, we started hustling, and before we knew it, we were moving right along. We started finishing 10 pages at a time, and now we're done. These editor's pages are the last ones to be completed. And we think that we've put out a pretty good book.

We would like to thank, first and foremost, Mr. James Burbank, our advisor, for giving up his time, his money, and sometimes his sanity for us (staying every night until 6 or 7 o'clock can really start to get to a person). He truly deserves his yearbook dedication this year. We also wish to thank Fish McGill for being our Tech-Support Chief. Two of our exchange students, Ulrike and Marion, also deserve praise for doing random errands for us. Many thanks to everyone who helped us with names and ads. Thanks to the staff of D&M Pizza for making our dinner on numerous occasions (and for having that sweet deal on pizza!). And thanks to Eric Bergevine for creating the "little guys" seen throughout the yearbook. If there is anyonewho we forgot to thank, we apologize.

Matt, Jeff, Keli, Lauren, Michelle
